The Atkinson

The Atkinson is an arts centre in Southport.

This is the way in through automatic doors.

Our staff are here to help you, they wear a red uniform.

Foyer

Inside the front door you will see our Box Office.

Box Office is where you can buy and collect tickets.

You can buy and collect merchandise in the foyer by the fireplace.

Items include light up toys and a souvenir programme.

Toilets

Toilets are available on all floors.

We have a Changing Places toilet on floor 1.

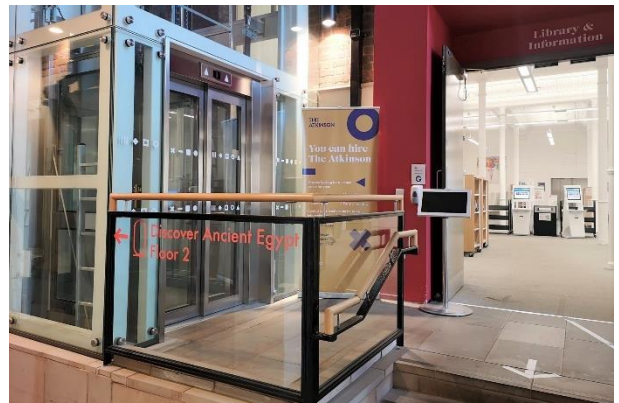

Access

We have stairs and a glass lift to all floors.

The glass lift is next to the library doors.

Taking your seats

A member of staff will look at your ticket and direct you to your seat.

Before you take your seat, or during the interval, you might want to buy a drink or a snack from the Theatre Bar on floor 1.

Our theatre seats over 400 people.

Low lighting will be kept during the performance so you can see to move around the auditorium.

During the show

At the beginning of the show the actors will come on to the stage in costumes that help them tell the story.

The actors will introduce themselves and we will sing a song together.

During the performance you might need some quiet time outside of the auditorium.

You are welcome to sit in our quiet zone on floor 2 or sit in the theatre bar on floor 1.

You will hear music in the auditorium. You can cover your ears or wear ear defenders.

Sometimes there are songs to sing along to.

The show can make you laugh because it is funny.

It can make you feel happy, and you might like to clap hands. You might see something that makes feel sad or upset, that's okay too.

Lots of people clap hands at the end of the performance to show how much they enjoyed it.

At the end of the show, you will leave The Atkinson and go home.

Goodbye.

We hope to see you again soon.
